SMFR, Hospitals Partner for Fall Prevention Program ‘Stepping On’

Although falls are more common as we age, they don't have to occur. SMFR transports hundreds of residents to area hospitals annually because of injuries from falls.

One of the ways we're reducing this risk is a partnership with Parker Adventist and Sky Ridge Hospitals for their Stepping On programs. Sky Ridge's program occurs at Station 34 in Lone Tree, while our personnel teach a module in the Parker class.

Stepping On is an evidenced-based program that empowers older adults to develop healthy behaviors to reduce the risks of falls.

Participants meet weekly for seven weeks. In a small-group setting, older adults learn balance and strength exercises, and develop specific knowledge and skills to prevent falls. The course incorporates professional advice from a physical therapist, vision expert, pharmacist, and community safety specialist such as SMFR's risk reduction specialists. ■

Learning safer ways to ascend and descend stairs is only one lesson for Stepping On participants.

Mrs. Colorado, Firefighters Bring Teddy Bears to Colorado's Kempe Center

Mrs. Colorado America Erica Shields and her entourage visited Station 34 in April to donate 900 teddy bears for children in crisis. Firefighters and Shields delivered them to the Kempe Center Children's Hospital Colorado.

SMFR Hosting Police & Fire Games

South Metro Fire Rescue is hosting the 2017 Police & Fire Games July 17-23.

The Colorado Police and Fire Athletic Association organizes the annual event to encourage physical fitness among police officers and firefighters. The friendly competition also creates a safe social environment for the responders.

This year's events will include Basketball, Bowling, Golf, CrossFit, Flag Football, Mountain Biking, Poker, Horseshoes, a Homerun Derby, Long Range Rifle, Softball and Volleyball.

Events will occur at a pair of high schools, recreation centers, parks, the host hotel (Hilton Denver Inverness) and the Highlands Ranch Law Enforcement Training Center.

Fire Academy, New Careers Begin for 20 Newest SMFR Recruits

Twenty men and women began their pursuit of a career at South Metro Fire Rescue (SMFR) in earnest last month when they embarked on their probationary fire academy.

They now spend their weekdays learning the science and art of firefighting from physical and mental fitness to CPR and roof ventilation. In the images below, they are learning how to control attack hose lines.

Upon finishing the 16-week academy, these probationary firefighters will graduate and start serving trimester rotations with engine-, truck- and medic-companies to hone their skills in the field.

When they finish the trio of rotations to the standards of SMFR, they will be promoted to the rank of firefighter. ■

Citizens go Behind-the-Scenes at South Metro

Twenty-two citizens are learning about South Metro Fire Rescue (SMFR) from a unique behind-the-scenes perspective this spring. They are participating in the annual Citizens Academy.

Over the course of eight weeks, they experience many of the skills that firefighters use to serve our community such as searching burning buildings, CPR, vehicle extrication, rappelling and hose operations. They also learn about the different apparatus utilized at SMFR, community risk reduction, investigations and dispatching.

The next citizens academy is scheduled for Spring 2018. ■

Innovative ‘Ready, Set, Goat!’ Program Earns Award

The Ready, Set, Go! (RSG) Program of the International Association of Fire Chiefs (IAFC) recognized South Metro Fire Rescue as one of its 2017 Award for Excellence recipients. These awards recognize the exceptional efforts and achievements of RSG member organizations and individuals associated with implementing the fire-adapted concept and maintaining a successful RSG! Program in their communities.

SMFR was recognized at a recent conference in Reno, Nevada, for its innovative program “Ready, Set, Goat!” in which goats are used to conduct mitigation around neighborhoods. The PineRidge neighborhood of Castle Pines started the program in 2015 and partnered with SMFR to brand it, expand the outreach opportunities and and increase its overall impact.

Risk Reduction Specialist

Einar Jensen and Fire Chief Bob Baker attended the ceremony and accepted the award on behalf of SMFR its the community partners. ■

Wildfires, Challenging Rescues Among Recent Incidents for SMFR

2017 Household Chemical Roundup May 20 in Parker

Above, firefighters in hazardous materials suits enter a mechanical room to investigate a possible ammonia leak on May 2. Below, agency representatives plan how to extinguish the Cherry Creek Trail fire safely.

Above, a firefighter douses a wildfire along the Cherry Creek Trail the evening of April 12.

Above, Tower 34 extended its ladder to rescue a worker who fell on the 4th floor of this building on April 12. The seriously injured worker was lowered in a Stokes Basket that was attached to the platform.

Above, on April 7 a truck rolled into Cherry Creek Reservoir. Our Dive Rescue Team attached a tow cable to the truck so it could be pulled out. At right, flames churn along the Cherry Creek Trail in Parker on April 13. The wildfire was the second in two days along the popular trail.

The first of three Douglas County Household Chemical Roundups is scheduled for May 20 at the Joint Service Facility at 17801 East Plaza Drive in Parker.

Last year, over 600 vehicles delivered roughly 40 tons of household chemicals to the event, which is sponsored by TriCounty Health and Clean Harbors and, for the Parker event, hosted by SMFR.

Participants are asked to donate $25 per vehicle and bring proof of county residency. The list of acceptable chemicals is posted at www.tchd.org/250/Home-Chemical-Waste, but includes oil, batteries, tires and paint.

The other roundups are August 12 in Highlands Ranch and September 30 in Castle Rock. Each event lasts from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. ■
