

District 6

Kevin Leung

Kevin Leung and his family have lived in Douglas County for over 30 years ago and Castle Pines, which resides in District 6, for over 25 years. He owns an award-winning local business.

Kevin grew up in extreme poverty in Hong Kong and was the son of illiterate parents. Through hard work and determination, Kevin earned an MBA and a Master's Degree in Computer Science from the University of Colorado. Kevin currently works in Information Technology (IT) in the private sector and was an Affiliate Faculty Member at Regis University.

Kevin has been an active school and community volunteer for over 18 years, including:

- Douglas County School Board Director (11/2017-11/2021) and Board Treasurer
- 2020 Colorado Association of School Boards McGuffey Award winner
- 2014 Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition
- Appointed to the Colorado State Advisory Council for Parent Involvement in Education
- Served on Douglas County's District and School Accountability Committees
- Parker Authority for Reinvestment Advisory Committee Chair for 3 terms

Kevin was the Board treasurer for a 700-million-dollar school district and knows how to maintain long-term financial stability and to provide accountability for taxpayer funds. Kevin is a proven leader, and he cares about his constituents. He will prioritize protecting our residents' life and property and retaining and recruiting the best firefighters.
